April 10, 2017

Dear Tiger Parents/Guardians,

Thursday Makeup Day

Just a reminder that this Thursday is a makeup day for our one snow day we had this year. Spring Break is now scheduled April 14-17.

Prom

Prom will be held at Rays Plaza Banquet Center again this year from 8:00 pm until 12:00 am on April 29. The CHS Prom is for seniors and their guests. As with all dances, any out of school guest must be approved via a dance guest form available in the CHS office. Tickets will be on sale in the CHS library Wednesday, April 26 through Friday, April 28. Students will be expected to dress and dance with dignity for this event similar to every other CHS dance.

“Dough-Nut Miss School” Attendance Challenge

The twenty-six days that we have remaining are as important if not more so than any of the other days we’ve had this school year. It is crucial that students attend school each and every day that our doors are open so that they can finish the year on a strong note. We’re running an attendance challenge next week which will continue through End of Course testing (April 18-28). Students with perfect attendance during these two weeks will receive a doughnut the following week.

Your support in working to make sure that students are present at school each day is so appreciated. This is particularly true during testing when missed End of Course Exams must be made up. It is our feeling that students taking their exams with the rest of their class tend to do better because they get the review leading up to the exam and the standardized testing environment with their peers.

Tiger Shoutout

Congratulations to Lennorris Hughes (3D Animation) and Archna Sobti (Introduction to Business Communication) on their first and second place finishes respectively at the state FBLA competition last week. Their finishes qualify them for the national competition this summer. Hyrum Dickson and Clayton Deimund also had a stellar finish taking ninth in Emerging Business Issues. The amazing 3D animation that Lennorris created from scratch can be viewed at Congratulations to the members of the CHS Theater Department on their successful completion of a monumental undertaking in “Jesus Christ Superstar.” The students really performed incredibly well from the acting, singing, and music to the technical aspects of lights, sound, and set creation. Well done Red Dagger!

Also, the Varsity Scholar Bowl Team placed 3rd in district competition on Saturday with Jessica Weibrecht, Zach Sample, and Bradley Orenstein all placing in the top 10 for correctly answered questions.
